 - to 15 days before the event: 50% of the fee
 - thereafter, the entire fee will be charged.
3. We refer to the possibility of cancellation insurance. These services aren't offered by the organisers themselves. This may be taken up with external service providers.
4. If an advertised training coach is prevented from attending with good cause, this is no reason for a cancellation - providing that the organiser provides another trainer in their place who is qualified to the same level.
5. Should the course be cancelled for an important reason by the organiser, for example due to illness or force majeure (e.g. Corona Virus), the possible amount already paid will be refunded immediately. Other claims cannot be asserted.

8. Audio and video and photo recordings

Video, photo and audio recordings of the seminar may only be made by the participants with the prior consent of the Besser-Siegmund-Institut. Private photos may be taken as long as this does not interfere with the course of the seminar. The publication of the photographs electronically, in print media and/or all other media requires the permission of the Besser-Siegmund-Institut. The legally prescribed rights to one's own image must be observed. In seminars, photo, video and audio recordings are sometimes made by the employees of the Besser-Siegmund-Institut or a person authorized by them to do so. By participating in the seminar, the participant gives his/her consent to the private and commercial use of these recordings. The training participant gives his consent that the training group photo may be used for advertising purposes in the social networks of the Besser-Siegmund-Institut. A claim to commission or other payments is fundamentally excluded, unless otherwise agreed in writing in advance. If the internet quality of online events is reduced due to circumstances for which the organiser is not responsible (disruptions on the internet and/or technical disruptions of the platforms involved), the full seminar price must still be paid.
9. wingwave is fundamentally an additional intervention tool for appropriately certified Coaches, Trainers, Doctors and Therapists. It does not replace the qualification to become a Coach or Therapist.
10. Participation requires normal mental and physical capacity. The training participant is already a certified Wingwave-Coach with a valid contract.
